The Business: Rollergirl Promotion ABN 34 227 342 569

The Activity : Roller Skating and Roller Blading
The Risks of the Activity

Falling down, or having a collision can cause yourself to be injured and is the biggest risk for roller skating. For this reason you should always wear your roller skating protective gear.

Rollergirl Promotions accepts no responsibility for injury caused by a fall or collision. Persons Roller Skating or Blading at UNSW or other locations do so entirely at their own risk. Rollergirl Promotions Staff cannot be held responsible for any accidents caused by structures, object or by the actions of other skaters. Rollergirl Promotions is not responsible for loss, damage, or injury caused to yourself or a third party. Skaters shall be responsible for their own safety and personal effects at all times.

Rollergirl Promotions recommends the use of protective equipment during skating activity.. Wearing protective equipment will greatly reduce the chance of injury due to a fall / collision. Persons using their own skates and equipment are responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of such, and Rollergirl Promotions cannot be held responsible for any accidents, damage or injury caused by such skates and equipment to yourself or a third party.

Pre-Existing Medical Conditions

We highly recommend that you do not take part in skating activity if you suffer from high blood pressure, heart, back or neck problems, brittle bones, joint injuries or any other condition that could be aggravated by this activity.

If you are, or suspect you are pregnant you should not take part in this activity.
